

CargoWise Expands Into New UK Office

- Larger Space Accommodates Additional Staff and Growing EMEA Client Base -

Milton Keynes, UK, March 26, 2010 — CargoWise®, a globally recognized technology supplier for logistics service providers, has opened a new, larger office in the UK and added additional staff to better serve its growing business requirements throughout the European, Middle East and African (EMEA) region.

The new facility, at Linford Wood, Milton Keynes, is fully outfitted to provide expanded European-based sales, customer service, training and development staff to accommodate continuing business growth in the region. Ideally located at the centre point between London and Birmingham, Oxford and Cambridge, Milton Keynes is situated alongside the M1 motorway (junctions 13 and 14) and accessed by the main west coast intercity rail line for ease of transportation.

“This office allows for future growth as our European staff continues to increase; and it positions CargoWise extremely well to enhance its current footprint in Europe as we expand our global customer base,” said Steve Corbet, Vice President Business Development – EMEA for CargoWise. “The new office provides a superior working environment for our staff and excellent facilities for visiting clients.”
